

1980

Sustainability in Practice – since 45 years.

In 1983, cph has introduced the first biodegradable labelling adhesives to the market.

From 1989 - 1998 cph has received annually the environmental award by ASU, honouring our sustainable products & working habits.

1990

From 1991 cph has been packaging all liquid adhesives in plastic buckets made from recycled granulate.

cph has been certified according to DIN ISO 14001.

cph introduced the first washable hotmelt, making the cleaning and recycling process of PET bottles easier that is approved by PET Cycle GmbH, Germany.

In 1994 cph has been validated as the first German company ever according to EMAS 1836 and has thus the number 0001.

2000

Since 2002 cph collects rainwater from our roofs for cooling and cleaning purposes.

In 2010, cph and one other European adhesives manufacturer has been certified that the labelling adhesives are free of TMDD.

2010

cph won three times the "Deutschen Mittelstandpreis" by the Oscar-Patzelt-Stiftung.

2011: for the fourth time in a row cph has won the award for "sustainable corporate management" by Hoppenstedt Verlag.

cph Deutschland Chemie GmbH
Heinz-Bäcker-Straße 33
D-45356 Essen

T. +49(0)201-8 14 06-0
F. +49(0)201-8 14 06-280
service@cph-group.com
www.cph-group.com

As one of the first company's, cph has introduced bio-based hotmelt.

cph pioneered the market with the introduction of zinc and borax-free labelling adhesives.

In 2015 cph has built a new laboratory & followed strict ecological constructive forms, such as the usage of regional raw materials and climate-friendly heating.

cph has been awarded an innovation prize which rates us under the top 100 most innovative companies of Germany.

cph has won the German Excellency Award 2020 in the category Sustainability & Environment.

cph has introduced the first labelling adhesives based on side stream starch to the market.

In 2011/2012 cph has received the Ecoprofit Award, honouring us for reducing cost for waste, raw materials, water, and energy.

2014: the headquarter has been extended with neighbouring property consisting of 20ha forest, compensating 250-300 t CO2 annually.

Among the first manufacturer in Europe, cph has been offering MOSH/MOA free packaging hot melts.

cph introduced the first hotmelt adhesives that are based on up to 50% renewable raw materials.

cph switched the entire electricity usage to green electricity.

2020

cph Deutschland Chemie GmbH
Heinz-Bäcker-Straße 33
D-45356 Essen

T. +49(0)201-8 14 06-0
F. +49(0)201-8 14 06-280
service@cph-group.com
www.cph-group.com